- Between 10 and 20 of the seagoing personnel of the PZM (Polish Maritime Lines) have been called up for naval exercises. It is usual for the call-up to take place during the summer.
- One of the men, a 3rd officer who held the rank of ensign in the navy, was called up for four months as of 7 January 1955, and sent on a minesweeper course.
- Students of the Merchant Marine School when they were graduated in 1954 were called up for naval exercises for a period of three months. Of a total of 40, 25 were retained in the navy; the remainder joined the merchant marine.
